European Solidarity Corps
Volunteering project

Arts project at KIA

The project

The project takes place at the Korrektie Instituut Aruba (KIA), the national prison where volunteers lead creative art sessions for inmates. Each session offers space to paint, draw, craft, or experiment with various materials and techniques. The goal is to bring imagination and teamwork into an environment where daily life often lacks color and creativity.

During orientation, volunteers visit departments to find the best match between their skills and the groups they will work with. Together with inmates, they plan and carry out small creative projects, encouraging expression, practical skills, and the satisfaction of creating something with their own hands.

The project promotes inclusion, empathy, and self-expression, using art as a tool for rehabilitation, confidence-building, and developing social and emotional skills among participants.

Accommodation and meals

Volunteers will live in a shared house with other international participants. Rooms will be shared two volunteers per room. You are responsible for the accommodation which will be checked on a monthly basis.

Volunteers will receive pocket money and a food allowance paid into their bank account monthly. Monday to Friday volunteers will receive lunch in KIA.

The accommodation is well located, 5 minutes walk from a local beach and with all the appliances and equipment needed for self catering and learning to cook the local food.

There is a car and bikes which can be used by Tur Cos Ta Posibel volunteers.

For the project, volunteers need to be ...

- Empathy for detainees • 23 years +
- Lead engaging, hands-on sessions with inmates
- Use creativity with limited tools
- Adapt, reuse, and think outside the box
- Share art or crafts to connect with people
- Be patient, respectful, and open-minded
